KERRY BISKELONIS, LPC & RYT

Primarily, Kerry Biskelonis is a mom on a mission to live in a less hateful world.
Part of that mission, as the Founder and Clinical Director of Reset Brain and Body, she sets out to redefine how people experience mental health care.

She has 12 years of experience as an integrative psychotherapist, working with high achievers and Type A personalities, often parents balancing successful careers and intentions to be mindful caregivers.

She helps them level up their intuition, remove habitual blockages, manage existential crises, and overcome chronic stress, using a bold, creative, and experiential approach that combines expertise in somatics, mindfulness, yoga, trauma, and psychedelic-assisted therapy with her own background as a business owner and a former corporate leader.
